Should the Notes be held in usufruct, the usufructuary shall be entitled to the same interests and other rights as the original owner. And should they be held under pledge, the Noteholder shall be entitled to exercise all the rights, the pledgor facilitating their exercise to the pledgee until the pledge be acquitted.

Article XII. Syndicate Representative – The Meeting shall be chaired by the Representative of the Syndicate, with such powers as established by Law, these Regulations, the Note issue contract and the Noteholders' General Meeting to exercise the actions and rights to which said Meeting is entitled, acting as liaison between the Issuer and the Syndicate.

In the event of absence or illness, the Representative shall be substituted by the Noteholder that he/she names and, should none be named, the Noteholder with the highest number of Notes, until the General Meeting resolves to name another, should it do so.

Nonetheless, statutory legal rights to contest the resolutions taken by the General Meeting are sustained.

Any Noteholder wishing to take such suit must put it to the Representative who, should he/she deem that grounds exist for considering the proposal, shall convene the General Meeting.

Should the General Meeting reject the Noteholder's proposal, no Noteholder may take it as an issue of personal interest to the Courts of Justice, unless there is a clear contradiction with the resolutions and regulations of the Syndicate.

Article XIV. Noteholders' Conformity – Subscription or possession of Notes entails the Noteholder's full ratification of the issue contract, membership of the Syndicate and acceptance of these regulations and conformity with said Syndicate having full legal liability to all effects.

Should events arise that are not envisaged herein, or under prevailing legal provisions, the bylaws of the Issuer shall be applicable in their place.
